

Loyola-Blakefield
1978

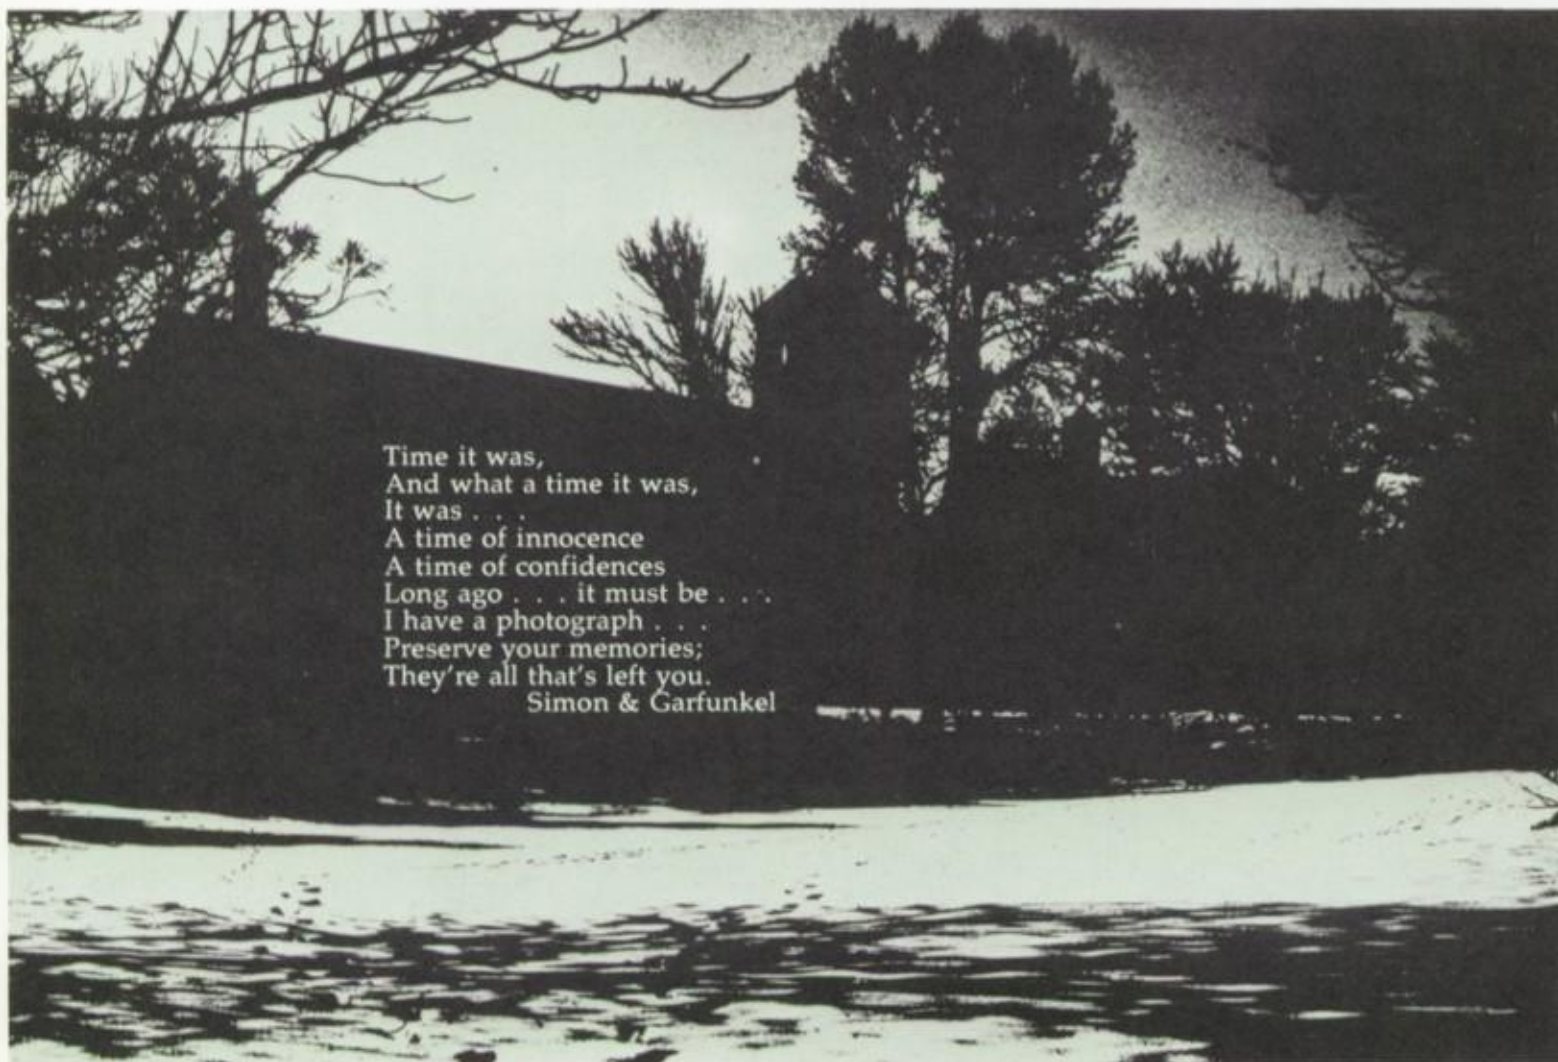

This is a book of memories, times that we had, good or bad, all in the past. This book is an attempt to recreate the year 1977-1978, the school year. A lot happened this year, from Freshman orientation, all the way to the Senior Graduation. Yes, many events created this year, in athletics we dominated our archrival Calvert Hall from the Thanksgiving Day game upset victory (30-12) til Frank Vellegia's dramatic grand slam in the bottom of the seventh with two outs. The students were very productive and the freshman were the best class academically in years.

Loyola celebrated its 125th Anniversary and on a tragic note, Fr. Peter Smith, S.J. died. We had several excellent dramatic productions and The On Our Own Players made their debut. And in what may be considered the final act of the year, Susan Hume and Larry Artes were wed on the 10th of June.

This is supposed to be a dedication and the only proper dedication that can be made would be to the students, faculty and staff of Loyola, for without them there would have been no year and thus no yearbook.

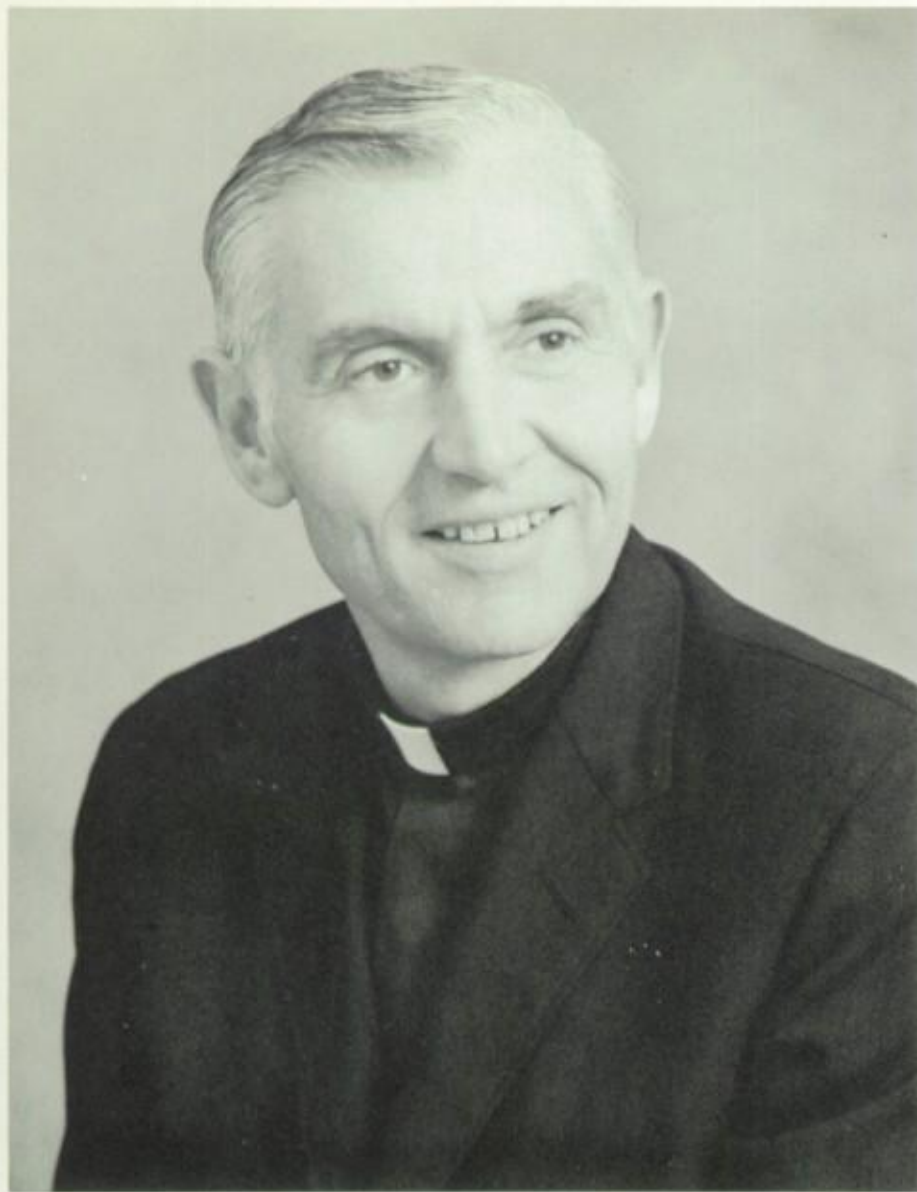

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence
A time of confidences
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph . . .
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.
Simon & Garfunkel

A memorial tribute to our teacher and Friend, Rev. Peter V. Smith, S.J.

"The virtuous man, though he die before his time, will find rest.
Length of days is not what makes age honorable,
nor number of years the true measure of life;
understanding, this is man's gray hairs,
untarnished life, this is ripe old age.
He has sought to please God, so God has loved him:
as he was living among sinners, he has been taken up."

- wisdom 4: 7-10

On June 30, the last pages of the 1978 Yearbook were sent to the publisher. The yearbook took up a great deal of time and effort on the part of many throughout the ten months of work. I would like to thank those that helped with this publication.

First and foremost, our moderator, Mr. Ned Hogan, S.J., deserves special praise for his continuous enthusiasm and hard work.

Mr. John Bailey, our yearbook representative, made regular trips to help us stay on schedule.

Mr. Roger Maass, of Hutzler's, sent us the senior portraits.

Thanks are due to many Faculty members for help and support, especially Fr. Mike Hricko, Dr. Ken Martin, and Mr. Frank Rehak.

Many photographers were involved. They were: Tom DiBiagio, Tom Mudd, Scott Finlay, Don Kyne, Todd Muneses, and Brent Ciccarone. The swimming pictures were courtesy of Mr. John Dunnigan.

Others on the staff that deserve recognition are Rob Cole; Tony Moag, Drew Schoeffield, and Rob Schoeberlein.

Chris Lewandowski did a fine job keeping the yearbook finances in order.

Kevin Lynch, our Photo Editor, stuck with the book until the end. He was always willing to help other photographers, and was of great assistance to both myself and Mr. Hogan.

Finally, I would like to thank my Father for the use of his darkroom and equipment.

In the four years that I have worked on the Loyola Yearbook, the 1978 staff was the best. Thanks again!

- Clem Erhardt
